

MAG. MICHAEL MENDEL
Attorney

- Year of birth 1970, born and raised in Klosterneuburg, studied law in Vienna.
- After the court internship he got to know the public administration in the office of the Lower Austrian government from the inside from 1994 onwards. In addition to his work in the building law department, he represented the province of Lower Austria in the Austrian Institute of Construction Engineering (OIB) and began lecturing on various topics of public law after passing the administrative service examination.
- Although he was pragmatized, he was looking for new challenges, joined our firm and caught up on his legal training.
- He has been a registered attorney since 2001 and a partner in our firm since 2004.
- Michael Mendel primarily advises companies in the energy, infrastructure and construction sectors as well as municipalities and private clients with a special focus on environmental and energy law, public construction law and regional planning law. Furthermore, he represents clients in administrative criminal proceedings relating to entrepreneurial activities.
